Grand jury indicts 1 Louisville police officer in raid resulting in death of Breonna Taylor

(WDRB) -- A Jefferson County grand jury charged former Louisville police Det. Brett Hankison with three felony counts of wanton endangerment on Wednesday for shooting into a nearby apartment during the raid on Breonna Taylor's home in March. Each charge carries a prison sentence of 1 to 5 years, if convicted.

Neither Hankison nor the two other officers who fired their weapons -- Sgt. Jon Mattingly and Det. Myles Cosgrove -- were indicted in Taylor's death. Taylor was killed by one of Cosgrove's bullets, according to FBI ballistics findings released by Kentucky Attorney General Daniel Cameron.

(KIRO) Thirteen people were arrested when Louisville police intervened with the march at Bardstown Road earlier Wednesday, according to a statement from Louisville Metro Police Department spokesperson Jessie Halladay. Sixteen other arrests were made in downtown Louisville, Halladay said. The exact charges were not immediately available, the Courier-Journal reported.

Protests have begun in cities across the country as demonstrators stand in solidarity with the city of Louisville after a Kentucky grand jury declined to indict any of the officers for their actions in Breonna Taylor's shooting death.

The KHEREF Emergency Preparedness Update is assembled several times a week. When events make it necessary, the Update may be sent out several times a day to keep our hospital and the healthcare community advised on preparedness news and information. Most of this information is compiled from open sources, and where possible reference links will be provided. There is an archive of Emergency Preparedness Updates available here. If you would like to add or delete, or have something you would like to contribute to a future edition of the Emergency Preparedness Update, please contact rbartlett@kyha.com (include your current email address). The preparedness program for the Kentucky Hospital Association (KHA) and KHEREF are supported by US DHHS ASPR HPP funds through a contract with Kentucky Public Health.
